What looks very like the result of the communiqués of the "Press Commissioner" -now presumed to be defunct-appears in the form of a leading article in the London & China Express of the 9th July, under the heading "Sir John Pope Hennessy and Major General Donovan. As the real facts of the case have been repeatedly given in these columns, and the public are now fairly conversant with the actual position of the "rather serious differences," it is not necessary to reenter upon the subject, or to show wherein the London paper, which professes to be acquainted with affairs in Hongkong, is at variance with the true state of matters. It seems to us, however, and it may be suggested to other minds also, that the Express owes some amends to General Donovan for the hasty manner in which it has condemned that gallant officer unheard, and for the readiness it has shown to espouse the great moment to the gallant General. but it ought to be to every honest newspaper to admit that it has been misled. makes some sensible remarks. > SUPREME COURT. IN SUMMARY JURISDICTION. (Before the Puisne Judge, F. Snowden, Esq)

Tuesday, August 17. LEE AMAN v. DANIELS, $20.00. This was a claim for two months wages as amah. Defendant admitted a liability of $16.32, being wages for one month and 16 days, up to date of dismissal, but she claim d to deduct from that amount the sum of $5 on account of damage done to a quantity of lace damaged at the wash. She distinctly told the amah not to send the lace to the washerman, yet she did so in disobedience of her orders and it returned torn and atterly ruined. She made agreements with all her servants that if they damaged or broke anything their wages would be cut. She discharged the amah on account of disobeying her orders about the lace going to the washerman. His Lordship said a master was justified in dismissing a servant for disobedience of orders, but in this case he did not think the disobedience was of so aggravated a pature as to merit dismissal. With regard to the damage done to the lace he did not clearly see his way to fine the complainant, as the damage was apparently done by the washer-

IN ORIGINAL JURISDICTION.

(Before His Honor the Puisne Judge, Mr F. Snowden.) Tuesday, August 17. SANDS AND ANOR, U. THE HONGKONG AND WHAMPOA DOCK COMPANY. This was an action for specific performance which has occupied the Court off and on now for several months and must by

The Hon. the Attorney General, (E. L. O'Malley) instructed by Mr Dennys, appeared for the plaintiffs; and Mr. Hayllar, Q C., instructed by Messra Brereton and In delivering judgment in July 9, his S. Honour said, he had stated that he would of providing some other security instead of to him that it was most unressonable that the Company should be called upon to give a mor gage on property which they had p otation, supposing that as good an taken place. It was not so easy a thing in this Co chy to get a good mortgage security in $75,000 for five years. The defendants anhmitted to the Court in aubstitution of the mortgage mentioned in the original agreement a mortgage on Marine lot No. 68 per cent, per annum. This security had received the sanction of the Court in the" administration suit, and was as good security of the kind as the Colony could provide. The property had been surveyed by Mr Danby, and it was stated by the surveyor to be worth $114,000. The property was unencombered and was well

It now remained for him, exercising that dis- excuse. cretion which a Court of Equity under all the circumstances was bound to exercise in all cases for specific performance; and, look- | from the theatre. ing to all the circumstances of the case and the circumstances of both parties, he decided that the specific performance set forth in the agreement and prayed for by the plaintiffs should not be granted; provided that the arrangement to substitute the mortgage on Marine lot 68 and Inland lot No. 32, were not carried out this Court would then order it to be carried out forthwith, providing that the failureto carry it out was not owing to any tion granted in his judgment of May 29th (whether drawn up or not he did three days' imprisonment with hard labour. not know) restraining the Company from removing machinery, tools or plant from the properties referred to, would be dissolved, when the substitution of the mortgage on the Marine lot 68, and Inland lot No. 32, was completed. The value of the stock &c., prayed for in paragraph 4 would be taken forthwith. The Court if necessary would appoint a new valuator. The costs in this suit would fall upon the delendants, as they were responsible from the outset for the circumstances which induced the Court in suit 9 to direct this suit to be brought. The Attorney General did not precisely understand what the decision did with regard to costs. He did not know whether the order included the costs in No. 9 suit which arose in consequence of this suit. The Court: This is merely the costs of this suit. Mr Hayllar sald he did not see that his Lordship would have any jurisdict on in suit No. 54, sitting in case No. 9. Were t.e costs of yesterday included. There was, besides, a question of costs standing over for argument. The Attorney General: The costs in this suit up till to-day? The Court: Yes.

The Court then proceeded to take up some unimportant Summary Jurisdiction cases, which were then partly heard.
